HUTCHERSON CONVICTED

GIVEN TWENTY YEARS IN PENITENTIARY.

An Unusually Quick Trial—Jury Only Deliberates For a Short Time. Charge Brief.

In the district court Tuesday morning the case of the State vs. Luther Hutcherson, charged with assaulting a scout team, was resumed. The jury was composed of 11 members and was sworn in by Judge J. J. Jones. The case was heard by the jury and the verdict was returned in less than an hour.

The first witness introduced in the morning was the little girl, then her father. At 1:30 Dr. T. J. Almer testified and was followed by Will Ward. This closed the case for the State. The defense introduced no witnesses. County Attorney R. F. Spearman addressed the jury first for the State. Judge J. J. Jones spoke for the defense and was followed by W. B. Hamilton, also for the defense. District Attorney Clyde Sweeton closed for the state about 5:30 p. m.

The jury retired while Judge Porter prepared his charge to the jury, which was a brief and concise document and delivered a little before 6 o'clock. The jury again retired and court adjourned.

At 8 o'clock last night the jury announced ready with their verdict. Judge Porter was notified and, also, the attorneys for the defense. Luther Hutcherson was brought in, and the verdict was handed to Judge Porter, by R. L. Cornelius, foreman of the jury. After looking at the verdict Judge Porter gave it to District Clerk Joe Smith who read it as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant, Luther Hutcherson guilty of the crime as charged, and assess his punishment at twenty years confinement in the penitentiary."

Hutcherson was at once returned to the jail and the jury was discharged.

More a Matter of the Want of Opportunity Than the Want of Education.

Roosevelt said a few days since, "I am not a genius, the success I have attained is not due to the doing of so-called great feats, but the doing of the common every day things that most folks call commonplace, putting together, so to speak, the elements of simple life, the life of strength and unassuming ideals."

We are all more or less troubled with the desire to do in one effort that which should be done in many well defined and well thought out efforts.

Life building, home building, city building, should be of daily, monthly and yearly growth. Each day should have a place in the whole, each hour should have its part, and life should be shaded, strengthened and made pulsing in the dawning light of the individual moments.

Homes are few that are in their appointments the ideal of the good wives and mothers that presided over them. Our mothers do not lack in ideal, it is more the want of opportunity, or I might say a definite plan of home fitting suited and fitted to existing conditions.

Home development should be a daily, monthly and yearly growth, representing ideals that come to us from day to day, fulfilling needs that come to our daily growth.

We desire to place our large and varied home fitting department at the disposal of every true home lover upon terms and at prices that will appeal and please every one who may happily turn to the advantage of this offer.

We realize that it is not education, but opportunity that we need in our plans of home developing and it is our earnest desire to be of material assistance to those who would like to improve home conditions on possible terms and right prices to them.

Our reason for enlarging our stock of furniture and embracing in it every possible need of the home, is in order that we may be in a position to carry out completely and successfully any home fitting plan that might be desired. We have spared no pains to secure the best, and have been careful in every detail essential to making our proposition inviting, helpful and profitable to the home lover. Keeping our proposition in mind will be a good investment for any one.

"The Cat and the Fiddle." In "The Cat and the Fiddle," the musical extravaganza hit which has been so widely heralded for the offering at the King Monday, Oct. 17, we are assured that no producer has so far given us so much for the money. It is a delightful musical play, abounding in sparkling epigrams and smart witticisms and is rich in melodies that are haunting and catchy. It is a musical spectacle, which is said to be one of the season's greatest successes. Harry B. Watson and forty others, mostly girls and a number of new song hits are promised.

THEY CANCEL BRYAN DATE.

Red Oak, Iowa, Committee Object to a "Bolter."

Council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 11.—A special from Red Oak, Ia., says: At the request of the local Democratic committee the state central committee has notified W. J. Bryan that his speaking date in Red Oak has been cancelled. The committee gives as its reason for cancelling the date that Mr. Bryan has "bolted" the head of the Nebraska Democratic ticket, his apparent inconsistency on the liquor question and reported intention to attack Congressman Walter Smith in the Ninth district. Red Oak is strongly for Smith, regardless of party.

BIG STRIKE IN FRANCE

NORTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM PRACTICALLY TIED UP.

Military Engineers Called to Replace Strikers But Not Enough to Restore Schedules.

Paris, Oct. 11.—By 11 o'clock this morning the tie-up of the Northern railway system was practically complete as the result of the strike of the men. At that hour trains only for Calais and Cologne were moving.

Military engineers have been called to replace the strikers but the number is inadequate to restore the running schedules.

Several acts of violence occurred before day-break. At St. Quentin the tracks were torn up. Locomotives collided at Tervin and obstructed the main track.

Military forces have taken possession of several stations and have been posted along the road to protect the railroad property.

The strike developed overnight and took the company and the public by surprise. There has been little feeling on the part of the employees for some time, owing to the refusal of the Northern railroad to increase the wages of the men.

It is learned at St. Denis that 550 engineers out of a total of 600 refused to man their engines. At La Chapelle, 50 per cent of the men struck. At some depots 50 per cent of the employees failed to report for duty. The strikes on the lines other than the Northern, both state and private, developed a decided strike sentiment.

WOULD SELL SCHOOL LAND

LAND COMMISSIONER WANTS TO WAIVE RESIDENCE.

Commissioner Declares Lands Could Be Sold and Made Revenue Producing Under Plan.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—Land Commissioner Robinson in his biennial report to the legislature will recommend that a law be passed providing for the sale of all the remaining unsold school land without the requirement of residence thereon.

Should such a law pass it would revolutionize state land conditions in Texas. This will place over three million acres of land on the market as soon as such a law would become effective.

"It is believed the land would be sold and thus made revenue-producing if it were offered without condition of settlement and residence thereon," says Commissioner Robinson.

Ex-Senator Berry Named. Washington, Oct. 11.—Former United States Senator Berry of Arkansas was today appointed by the president, commissioner in charge of marking graves of Confederate soldiers and sailors who died in the Northern prisons during the war. He fills the vacancy caused by the death of General Oates.

HE PREDICTS A CLASH

ADMIRAL EVANS DISCUSSES RELATIONS WITH JAPAN.

It Will Be Over Trade Relations of the Pacific For the Future.

New York, Oct. 11.—That a clash of some kind between Japan and the United States is imminent, is the opinion of Rear Admiral Robert D. Evans in an interview given out by the old fighter from his New York hotel. "I think we must have friction with the Japanese sooner or later," said he, "but it will be over the question of dollars and cents, in other words about the trade of the Pacific. The population that borders upon the Pacific is greater than that living on any other body of water. The trade of the Pacific will be the great trade of the future. The Japanese will undoubtedly be ambitious to control it."
